

Alexis Moed

Alexis Moed, Director of Hockey at City Ice Pavilion has been playing hockey for 17 years. Alexis is a USA Hockey certified coach and member of the Ice Skating Institute (ISI). A native of Long Island, New York Alexis graduated with a degree in Advertising and Psychology from Boston College and was a proud member of their NCAA Division One Ice Hockey team. While at BC Alexis was named to the Hockey East All Academic Squad and was the recipient of the Athletic Directors Award.

Alexis has received on and off ice training from American, Canadian, and Russian coaches and was a member development programs, was a three-time member of the New York State Hockey Night in Boston team, and has extensive training in power skating techniques. She coached with the Long Island Gulls organization for six years and is the co-owner of the New York Sand Sharks girl's hockey organization. A member of the North Axis College Sports Management team Alexis understands the important role quality coaching and program development plays in the development of a successful hockey player.