

Shanley Pascal

Shanley Pascal, Skating Director of City Ice Pavilion, has 15 years of experience in figure skating from Freestyle to Moves in the Field. A Gold Certified ISI Judge, she is a proud member of the Professional Skaters Association (PSA), Ice Skating Institute (ISI), and United States Figure Skating Association (USFSA). A native of Miami, Florida, Shanley graduated with honors from New York University's prestigious Tisch School of the Arts with a Bachelor of Fine Arts in Drama. She has received training in Florida, London, and New York; other movement training includes Alexander Technique, Tai Chi, Ballet, Tap, Jazz, and Yoga. Shanley has been a part of City Ice Pavilion since its opening season and knows firsthand the strength of its coaches. This is an incredibly talented and diverse group of professionals well versed in all disciplines of skating including Freestyle, Ice Dance, Pairs, Moves in the Field, School Figures, Ice Theatre, Hockey, Choreography, and the International Judging System (IJS). Their experience encompasses all ages and levels. This experience, combined with a deep passion for their sport, creates a wonderfully motivating and nurturing environment to help skaters achieve their goals on the ice.
